

Jim Brogan is a former National Basketball Association player. He had the privilege of starting his career with the Golden State Warriors and finished with the Clippers. Jim is a graduate of West Virginia Wesleyan College with degrees in Business and Psychology.

Today he is a professional speaker, author, broadcaster and leader who has earned national recognition. Jim is also highly respected as an authority on peak performance for CEO's, coaches, teenagers, and elite athletes from the NFL, NBA, and Major League Baseball.

He has appeared on ABC, CBS, NBC, FOX, and was recently a guest on the Oprah Winfrey XM radio show. Jim is also on the Advisory Board of West Virginia Wesleyan College and the National Pitching Association as well as a Board of Director for the Pitch It Forward Foundation.

Since 1988 he has produced four programs for teens about skills for success. The current edition, 10 Steps to Success for Teens, has made a difference with thousands of teens across the country.

Ladies and gentleman Mr. Jim Brogan